

Feely Bag

You will need a range of items with different textures. Choose one, and put it in an opaque bag-without your child seeing which item you chose!

Your child can then feel inside the bag, - without looking in - and use describing words to explain what the object they're feeling is!

